

EDUCATION IN MOUNT PEARL

OVERVIEW

From Primary to Post-Secondary, Mount Pearl has full access to top-notch education. These institutions are committed to fostering a nurturing environment that promotes academic excellence, creativity, and personal growth. The schools in Mount Pearl and surrounding areas offer a comprehensive curriculum that balances traditional subjects with innovative programs, ensuring students are well-prepared for their future endeavours.

EDUCATION FOR CHILDREN

The Mount Pearl school system is under the Eastern Regional District. The schools in Mount Pearl range from Kindergarten to Grade 12 and all children from age 6 - 16 are required by law to attend school. Most students graduate from grade 12 at the age of 17. Aside from the public school system, Mount Pearl also has one private school.

POST SECONDARY

Continuing a post-secondary education (college or university) generally requires a high school diploma. Tuition fees for the publicly-funded post-secondary education system in Newfoundland and Labrador are among the lowest in Canada. University degrees can be pursued at Memorial University of Newfoundland in St. John's or Grenfell College in Corner Brook. You can prepare for a career in the marine industry at the Fisheries and Marine Institute of Memorial University in St. John's. Arts and trades careers begin at one of 17 College of the North Atlantic (CNA) campuses, or at one of the numerous private colleges in the province.
